Mr. I. N. Menon.—(a) Yes.

(b) For writing articles to the newspapers, containing false and malicious charges against responsible Government Officers.

(c) No.

(d) Yes.

(e) No answer is required in view of the answer to sub-division (c) of the question.

(f) A local enquiry was conducted by the Inspector of Schools, Southern Division.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—May I know the nature of the charges?

Mr. I. N. Menon.—The charges were that he had written malicious and false articles in the papers against public servants.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—Can't you give me a concrete example? What is the definite charge?—just an example.

Mr. I. N. Menon.—I cannot give an example. I can give the substance of one article.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—May I know what particular behaviour of the Government servant was complained against?

Mr. I. N. Menon.—The allegation was that avenue trees were sold to public servants without inviting tenders for auction?

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—Did the Government think that it is a very serious misrepresentation against the reputation of the Government Officer?

Mr. I. N. Menon.—Certainly. There is a rule that all properties should be auctioned. Otherwise it amounts to officers misappropriating public property.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—May I know whether the punishment is not a bit too hard?

Mr. I. N. Menon.—It also means want of discipline in a teacher. I don't think it is too much. It is a matter of opinion.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—May I know if a strong warning and a threatening of suspension in case of repetition would not have been sufficient?

President.—That is a matter of opinion.

Mr. C. A. Ouseph.—May I know the responsible officers maligned?

Mr. I. N. Menon.—There was a series of articles by this man. One was sent to me, I think, by the Panchayat Registrar and another by the Superintendent of Agriculture.

Mr. C. A. Ouseph.—May I know whether the word 'responsible' is deliberately used?

Mr. I. N. Menon.—I think the emphasis is unnecessary. All Government servants are responsible.

Mr. K. Ayyappan.—May I know whether these articles were signed articles?

Mr. I. N. Menon.—They are not signed. They are pseudonymous articles. Otherwise there is no necessity for enquiry.

Mr. K. Ayyappan.—How did the Government come to know that these articles were written by this man?

Mr. I. N. Menon.—From so many ways.

Mr. K. Ayyappan.—Did the Government make an enquiry whether the allegations were true?

Mr. I. N. Menon.—Certainly.

Training of Police Officers in Vellore.

187. Mr. K. G. Nayar.—Will the Government be pleased to state:—

(a) how many Vellore trained Police officers there are in the State now;

(b) why were they sent for such training;

(c) why not more officers in the Police service be given such training;

(d) how many crimes have been undetected by the Police during the year 1107?

Mr. P. Nilakanta Menon.—(a) 3.

(b) To get them trained efficiently for Police work.

(d) 96 (Anjikaimal 57 and Trichur 39.)

Mr. K. G. Nayar.—(c) May I know whether there is necessity now in the State only for three efficiently trained Police officers?

Mr. P. Nilakanta Menon.—That seems to be the view of the Government.

Mr. K. G. Nayar.—Any orders passed in that matter?

Mr. P. Nilakanta Menon.— This answer is approved by the Government.

Mr. K. G. Nayar.—May I know whether there were any other people prepared to undergo Vellore training without the cost being met by the Government?

Mr. P. Nilakanta Menon.—The Government had no offers.

Mr. K. G. Nayar.—Has the Government any objection to send them for Vellore training if they are prepared to meet their own expenses.

Mr. P. Nilakanta Menon.—Government will consider.

Mr. A. Eachara Menon.—Were there vacancies for these three men when they were sent for Vellore training?
